

Important Notice!

Further to the earlier notices issued by the Embassy regarding the devastation caused by cyclone "Ditwah" in Sri Lanka.

Information to Individuals/ Organizations on the current procedures in place with regard to releasing relief consignments in Sri Lanka are as follows;

Consignments from Individuals/ Organizations:

a) Consign to Disaster Management Centre (DMC)

If the local recipient agrees to transfer ownership to DMC, clearance will be undertaken by DMC on duty free basis. All other charges relevant to the consignment such as freight (if not prepaid), local shipping line charges, handling charges at the point of clearance etc. should be borne by the respective.

b) Consign to Individuals/ Organizations in Sri Lanka

If the recipient wishes to clear under their own name organization, such goods shall be cleared by the respective consignee on payment of all applicable levies. Therefore, it is advised that all relief consignments be consigned to the DMC for duty free clearance.
