The President expressed his deep sorrow at the tragic loss of lives and the suffering caused by the disaster, and conveyed the heartfelt condolences of the Government and people of Sri Lanka to the Government and people of Nepal, particularly to the families who have lost their loved ones.

Recalling the close and longstanding bonds of friendship and solidarity between Sri Lanka and Nepal, the President emphasized that Sri Lanka stands firmly with the people of Nepal in this hour of need. The financial contribution is intended to support immediate relief and humanitarian assistance to communities affected by the floods and landslides.

Earlier this morning, Foreign Minister Vijitha Herath spoke with his Nepalese counterpart Foreign Minister Shisir Khanal, conveying Sri Lanka's condolences, steadfast support and solidarity with Nepal.

The Government of Sri Lanka will remain engaged closely with the Government of Nepal and continue to explore appropriate avenues through which Sri Lanka can contribute to the relief and recovery efforts.
