Embassy of Sri Lanka in Warsaw commemorates the National Integrity Week

The Ambassador of Sri Lanka to Poland, Priyangika Dharmasena, together with the staff of the Embassy, commemorated National Integrity Week at the Embassy premises on 27 July 2026 under the national initiative, “A Culture of Integrity – A Clean Sri Lanka,” which was prominently displayed.

The pledge to uphold the dignity, transparency, and efficiency of the Public Service was recited, reaffirming the commitment to discharge public service duties with integrity and dedication. The ten Clean Sri Lanka principles, displayed in three languages, were exhibited for Sri Lankan consular visitors to the Embassy.

The Ambassador Dharmasena in her remarks to the staff, thanked their contribution to the Embassy, working as a team expecting to reach the goals of the government and requested their continued cooperation, while adhering to regulations and moral values anticipated of them.
